Detailed description: This is a musical score for a Horn part, likely from a film score titled 'Alphonse'. The tempo is marked 'Allegro' with a quarter note equal to 112 beats per minute. The score consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a dynamic marking of p (piano) and features several sf (sforzando) accents. The second staff starts with mf (mezzo-forte) and includes p (piano) and mf markings, along with various articulation marks like accents and slurs. The third staff begins with sf and contains mf and f (forte) markings. The fourth staff starts with p and includes sf markings. The music is written in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). There are blue brackets on the first and third staves, and a blue bar at the end of the third staff.
